

Write down the formula for the entropy of an ideal gas (at least the important first term – not necessarily the constants after).