

What is the formula relating object, image distances to the lens/mirror focal length?