What is the formula for the work done to assemble a charge configuration if the charge distibution is (1) a collection of point charges and (2) a continuous distribution ρ?